

Quick and Nifty Cowl

Designed by Isela Phelps

Bits of leftover yarn are always rolling around in my house, some of it sits for months, years all lonely in the “leftover” corner of the stash room. I loved this yarn and I wanted it to be used rather than it sitting all lonely with the rest of the stash. I had just enough leftover yarn to knit a small cowl/scarf.

Loom: AllnOne Loom, one rail

Yarn: 40 yards of worsted weight yarn. Knit Picks City Tweed HW, Morning Glory color was used in sample.

Notions: tapestry needle, 2 small buttons

Gauge: 8sts x 12 rows= 2inches in stockinette

Stitches: k, p, k2tog, yo

Size: 2-1/2 inches x 34 inches

Instructions

Cast on 14 sts, prepare to work a flat panel.
